GRANT IN THE PRESIDENCY.

We fancy that General Grant has by this time learned that being President of the United States is anything but a bed of down. He, perhaps, too, may have also learned that the gentleness of treatment which precedes nomination and election does not long survive inauguration, when the clamor for office, as a reward for partisan adherence, begins. We have no doubt, moreover, that he is a much wiser if not a much sadder man to-day than he was on the first Tuesday in November last, and that he, perhaps, has been taught some things, and felt some others, which he would rather had never been a part of his experience. Perhaps, too, he may look back upon the exalted and most honorable position which he left, to become the vexed candidate and President of the Radical party, with emotions of regret for the weakness of that moment that ever allowed him to surrender the serene seat of what should have been a more than satisfying eminence, to take the chair of thorn-crowned power to which he has been called.—Nor can he, we think, help feeling that the place to which he has been transferred is one wholly unsuited to his tastes, his attainments, his experience, and his talents; and that, in the eyes of the world, which expected much of him, and the eyes of his country, which hardly knew what to expect, he is but a sorry sight. That he has disappointed the party that elected him is manifest enough, while to the powerful party that opposed him he has given ample proof of the wisdom they displayed in such opposition.

Under these circumstances, President Grant should not be surprised at the severe chastisement he has received at the hands of his party and leading party journals, nor can he be altogether unconscious of the fact that he deserves it. As a partizan, he has acted with consummate folly; as an independent President, without statesmanship or ability. To his own party he has been wayward, capricious; now contemptuously independent, now almost cringingly subservient; to day taking a position with dogmatic headstrongness, and to morrow abandoning it with a surrendered will. To one party, he is an obvious and lamentable failure; to the other, a thorn in the side. By neither, we imagine, is anything much confidently counted upon, though most, by dint of violence, is got that the Radicals ask; and by one, at least, nothing is desired, so far as they are concerned.

With President Grant's treatment of his party, or his party's treatment of him, or the consequences to either, we have little to do, and in their relations and the results thereof to them we feel little interest. The only interest which we, in common with most men of whatever party, feel, is in the wise and beneficial administration of the Government, in seeing its honor upheld and its name not disgraced at home or abroad. President Grant has taken upon himself, in assuming the robes of office, the responsibility of seeing that these things are done. If he fails he will be held accountable, not by his party merely, if by them at all, but by the people of the United States, who have for the ensuing four years committed their national interests into his hands.—That commitment we, in common with all the Conservative journals, opposed for most vital and valid reasons, which the country and General Grant himself well know. But the advice of such was disregarded, their efforts in vain, and General Grant became President. It is now for us, as for all others who opposed his election, to bear as we best can, and make the most of what we could not help.

But when we take a retrospective view of Grant and his administration, and look ahead with such lights as he and it have given us, we can see little on which to congratulate the American people. Grant came into power on a Conservative wave; he is now foundering about on a stormy sea of Radicalism. His friends and admirers took great pains to assure the country that, in case of his election, he would be the most "moderate" and "common sense" President that had ever occupied the Executive Mansion. Three months have served to dispel this too credulously-accepted idea, which the more thoughtful and far seeing believed to be illusory from the beginning. His alleged moderation is a pure sham; his common sense the very quintessence of folly. Whatever the natural tendency of his mind may be—and there are many who think that, if left to himself, he would be measurably conservative, but that he is too weak to resist the importunities of those interested in his being otherwise—he has thrown himself into the embrace of the most violent and extreme of the party that put him nomination, which shows at least that they did not judge amiss when they congratulated themselves, with many a burst of satisfaction, that he would be as clay in the the hands of the potter. From the self-poise of a statesman, with which a President should be regarded, he has come to be considered the weak and vacillating plaything of a party. They say to him do, and he does, though he sometimes does it reluctantly and with a wry face. His appointments, both at home and abroad, governed by nothing but the party breeze which they raise around his ears, are the worst ever made. They have been arrived at by a sort of party see saw, one interest, perhaps a little conservative, pulling this way, and another interest, decidedly the reverse, pulling the other way, the latter generally carrying their point, because, probably, of their superior violence and audacity, and the louder party artillery which they bring to bear upon him. At all events, whatever the process, General Grant and Grant's administration are showing themselves to be the most non conservative and the most bitterly and extraordinarily proscriptive of which there is any record in the history of this country. The entire civil service of the Government is being put into the hands of the extremest of men and most bigoted and fanatical of partisans—Democrats and Conservatives being excluded and ousted in almost all cases, and everywhere, by the most rigid rules of party exaction.

An experiment was lately made at the Theatre de la Monnaie, Brussels on the application of a substance intended to render tissues, wood, cordage, scenes, &c., incombustible, and was fully successful. The experimenter walked along in close contact with the footlights, and placed pieces of muslin, linen, string, and other inflammable substances, previously prepared, on the lamp glasses. Not one of them was burned.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,

CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.

Being situated in the northwestern part of the State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of those waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.

The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CANTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Railroad will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

BOARD:

For one single month,	$50 00
For two or more months, $40 per month, or at that rate.
Per week,	16 00

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1869.

THE EVIL—THE REMEDY.

We are not averse to seeing the Northern people come among us for legitimate purposes; so far from this, we are anxious to see them come by scores and thousands, if they come in good faith, with their money and labor, to enrich themselves and help us to restore our desolated country. We want their capital, their labor and their intellect, and we are willing that they shall, after they have been here sufficiently long to learn our wants and necessities, and their own good, that they shall share in filling our places and offices of trust and profit. It is to be regretted that such people do not come among us more frequently and "in greater numbers. The reason why they do not is manifest to the commonest observer. Our government is uncertain, it is not acceptable to the people, and, besides, it is in the hands of irresponsible and incapable men, and these men have so increased our public debt as to frighten good men away and deter them from coming; they see there is no adequate protection for labor or property, and they see, too, that a man's hope of income and prosperity is to be cut off and swallowed up in exhortant taxation, made necessary to support the vulgar extravagance of ignorant, rapacious and worthless officials. They see, too, that labor is not well regulated, that it is uncertain, and thousands of laborers, who, instead of prospering and helping themselves and the country, are a scourge to the land, and who make up the alarming measure of our thieves and vagabonds. Every man who wants to see the South prosper knows what we have said to be true, and we maintain that it is the duty of every good man, rich and poor alike, to co-operate in placing the State in the hands of wise, good and responsible men, to the end these public evils may cease and the government of the State may be so conducted as to inspire confidence and hope at home and abroad. Then we may confidently expect honest, industrious people from the North and from foreign lands to come among us with their money and labor for the bona fide purpose of citizenship.—Such people we want, we repeat, by scores and thousands, and the good people of the State want them, but such people won't come until there is a change of rulers from those who are profligate, incapable and corrupt to those who are honest, capable and patriotic. This change is absolutely indispensable, and it is a matter of so great importance as that all legitimate means to this end should be applied as soon as it can be done.

We ask in conclusion one or two practical questions: Will a good man in New York or Maine, bring his money and energy to this State and make his home here, when he sees that labor and property and capital are unprotected, and when he sees the certain prospect of having his income and property swallowed up by endless and exorbitant taxation? Will such a man come here when he sees our State Legislature composed of ignorant and irresponsible men and a dead majority of them corrupt and willing and ready to be bought and sold like sheep in the market? Will such a man come here when he knows and understands that these legislators pay almost no taxes, because they have no property, while they run up the public debt in six months to forty millions of dollars, and then tax the property holders of the State, who are not their constituents, to pay the tremendous debt they thus create? Will such a man come when he sees these profligate legislators paying themselves seven dollars per diem, and all other officials like exorbitant salaries, when these same people are not the owners of property and don't labor? Say, will such a man come, when he sees our "Governor" full of revenge and hate towards the best portion of his own people, encouraging the most profligate men in office and co-operating with carpet bag vultures to plunder the public Treasury? Tell us people of North Carolina, will men such as we want, rich or poor, come while we are cursed as we are by Radical rule? Radicalism, public vice, public official corruption are at the bottom of the obstacles in the way of prosperity here and through out the South, and these must be driven from place before there is any reasonable ground of hope, and the sooner the people of all classes see this truth and take action to remove the evil the better.

COURT FOR ROCKINGHAM.—We learn that the Governor has ordered a special term of the Superior Court for Rockingham county to be held on Monday, 21st inst., by Judge Tourgee.

SPLIT AMONG THE "LOYAL."—The legislative bone abandoned by Gen. L. G. Estes, of New Hanover, seems about to become a bone of contention among the faithful in that county. Solon V. Larkins, it seems, wants to gnaw the gristle a little, while many think that he ought not to even snuff its delicious flavor, and talk of putting Gen. Rutherford against him, for a grand snarl over it. The Star says: "It is said that the Post refuses to publish the card of Solon V. Larkins announcing himself a candidate for the vacancy created by the resignation of Gen. L. G. Estes. But Larkins is not to be disposed of so easily. He and his respectable number of friends, especially in the rural section, intend to battle manfully for the antagonistic position they have assumed."

These manifestations of dissension in the "loyal" ranks are daily multiplying, and what makes it the more interesting to outsiders is, they don't care a bawbee which side whips, provided, they pull the wool well while they are all at it.

BENCH AND BAR.

It is very clear that the Bar, in the contest now going on with the Bench, have the latter in the wrong. Admit that the Court have been libelled by the bar, (which is not true,) men of character are proof against libels, and they always treat them with silence and contempt. Where is the public man who has not lived down calumny and the hasty judgments of ignorance and prejudice?

Let our Court consult with Chief Justice Chase, and he will tell them how he lived down the libels and calumny of Governor Holden's malice, by steady silence and profound contempt. It may be the Chief Justice of the United States would tell the Chief Justice of North Carolina, that Judges are sometimes wrong; and then they must be silent and quietly bear the consequences of their errors and mistakes. He will be sure to tell them, a libel should never be punished as a contempt of Court. He will tell them that the opinion of the Bar, like the opinion of the public, must have a free course, and when right, the Court can neither check, hinder, control or retard it. He will tell them, it is madness in a Court to attempt to force respect, reverence or homage from the Bar, or the people. He will tell them, that admiration and respect for the Courts are characteristic of the American people and Bar; and, so universal is it, that, when they fail to command it, the fault must be in the Court, and not with the people or Bar.

Since the adoption of the new Constitution and the election of convicted and unconvicted felons to hold office under it, there has been no occurrence so much calculated to aggravate our public misfortunes as the strife now going on between the Supreme Court and the hundred and ten members of the Bar who signed the Protest.

The majority of our Supreme Court are young men, of little experience in life, and less in law.

In a matter of so much importance to the public, as well as to the Court, it may be they will consult with Chief Justice Chase. If so, we beg to call the attention of the Chief Justice of the United States, first, to the respectful language of the protest itself, and then to inform him of Judicial and official behavior in North Carolina, since he was last here upon his Circuit.

We have seventeen Judges, every one, except Judge Mitchell, took a lively and active part in politics, either by writing letters, drafting addresses to the people, or speech making on the hustings, mostly to negroes. One of the Circuit Court Judges was arrested in this city for common street drunkenness and carried to the door of the city prison there to be incarcerated as a public nuisance. The Circuit of Judge Tourgee (a carpet bag Judge) opened at Greensboro; William F. Henderson, President Grant's Revenue Collector for the 6th District, was the Republican candidate for Congress, fairly and regularly nominated by the negroes and leaguers. Judge Dick, a Supreme Court Judge, bolted the nomination and two other Judges joined him, and the bolters put forth Judge Tourgee as a candidate for Congress, while riding his Circuit. At Rockingham, in a few minutes after the Judge adjourned Court for dinner, he was found upon the streets haranguing the people as a candidate for Congress. He said, "not that I know, but, they say, my competitor (Henderson) is indicted for mule stealing, &c." In reply Henderson said, "not that I know, but, they say, Judge Tourgee was cussed by a negro for refusing to pay an honest debt. Not that I know, but, they say, he is a jail-bird from the penitentiary of Ohio." Such were the compliments between the Bench and the Bar, when riding the Circuit.

These compliments culminated in a fight as the Judge journeyed on the cars to hold Person Court. The fight took place in the ladies' car and in the presence of ladies.—The conductor threatened to put the Bench and the Bar off the train.

The Grand Jury of Orange presented this fight and the whole Judiciary of the State; for their participation in politics, while the Bar, with truth, dignity and moderation, entered their solemn protest against this participation in politics.

Our Judges have been the glory and pride of the State, the envy and admiration of all the States.

Educated as the Bar and the people of North Carolina were to habitual reverence and respect for the Judiciary, nothing could have been more mortifying and loathsome to them, than to witness the political prostitution of the Bench to party and faction. A sense of duty compelled the Bar to enter their dissent to the political action of the Judiciary, and every man, woman and child, who have regard for judicial purity and decency will sustain them in it. And so far as we learn members of the Bar, now in attendance on the Court, who did not sign the protest, are willing to do so. Nunc pro tunc.

A LUCID CHARGE.—Think of twelve innocent looking gentlemen in a box in Smith county Texas, listening with wide open eyes to the following charge:

"If the jury believe, on the evidence, that the plaintiff and defendant were partners in the grocery, and that the plaintiff bought out the defendant, and gave his note for the interest, and the defendant paid for the note, by delivering to the plaintiff a cow, which he warranted not breeby, and the warrant was broken by reason of the breachiness of the cow, and he drove her back, and tendered her to the defendant, but he refused to receive her, and the plaintiff took her home again and put a yoke on her to prevent her from jumping fences, and by means of the yoke she broke her neck and died; and if the jury further believe that the defendant's interest in the grocery was worth anything, the plaintiff's note was worthless, and the cow good for nothing, either for beef or milk, then the jury must find out for themselves how they will decide the case, for the court, if she understands herself—and she thinks she do—don't know how such a case should be decided.

The verdict was "yes," and both parties appealed.

FORBIDDEN.—The running of velocipedes on the sidewalks, has been forbidden in Goldsborough.

For the Sentinel.

In my former communication, I stated that the spirit and obnoxious features of English jurisprudence in reference to the law of libel and liberty of the press, and the monstrous tyranny and ignorance of the British Judges were about to be exemplified and carried out in the case of the Judges of the Supreme Court against the protesting lawyers. I now propose to follow up that subject a little farther.

The Constitution of the United States, by prohibiting Congress from passing any law whatever abridging freedom of speech and of the press, evidently recognized the fact that liberty of speech and of the press had been restrained and limited by law, by the former government under which this people had lived. It had reference, therefore, to the liberty of speech and of the press as it existed in England previous to the organization of our government; and, as it was known that the policy of that country in respect to these rights and privileges was extremely narrow and unjust, scarcely leaving the people any liberty at all, it was at once determined to lift this pressure by the removal of such limitations and restraints, and to leave all such abuses to be ferreted out and corrected through the ordinary channels for the discovery and correction of lawlessness and crime.

If this were not the purpose of the Constitutional provision prohibiting Congress from passing any law abridging freedom of speech and of the press, then we are at a loss to discover any proper and sufficient object that the framers of the Constitution had in view in adopting such a prohibiting clause, as a part of the organic law of the land. But the immediate effects which followed its adoption proved this to be the intent and purpose of the Constitutional provision, for it promptly arrested vexatious prosecutions for constructive treason, as well as the Star Chamber decisions of the Courts, for political libel. So obvious was this the case, that the friends of a stronger form of government, one possessing more absolute powers, procured, during the presidency of the elder Adams, the passage by Congress of the sedition laws, which was the first attempt made by Congress to abridge the freedom of speech and of the press in this country. This law was passed to prevent the people from discussing and canvassing with freedom the measures of government, and the conduct of public officers. But after several actions and convictions had and obtained under this law, it became so notoriously base, odious and hateful to the people as to consign the President, under whose administration it was passed, to the shades of private life, forever shorne of its former strength and influence and usefulness as a statesman; while it materially affected, for the whole course of their political lives, all those who had anything to do with passing or sustaining it. Let others beware of their fate, especially the younger members of this Court, who have a hitherto before them of fame and usefulness, provided they will be always wise, and especially careful to avoid rendering star Chamber decisions in cases of political libels. And yet, it Adjournal's opinion, in the case of the seven Bishops, and of Holt, in Tucker's case, and of Locke and Mansfield, in other cases, be regarded as sound doctrine in this country the sedition law was no infringement of the liberty of speech and of the press. But that the sedition laws were not an infringement of these rights and privileges in cases of citizens of the United States, no public man or official dare now assert.

This brings us to speak of the history of the law of libel, in England, whence we have derived it. It is the history of the strong contending oppressingly with the weak—of a powerful and supercilious government and haughty officials usurping the rights of the people, and suppressing free discussion with a view to prevent its usurpations and corruptions and the short comings of its officers, from being the subject of general censure and comment. It is true that the law of libel forms part and parcel of the common law, but it must not be forgotten, that most of the doctrines respecting libel, which have prevailed in England for centuries and which we have imported into this country, originated in the Star Chamber decisions, and constitute a code of Judge-enacted law, resting on no authority but the caprice of its authors, and therefore, properly speaking, is not a part of the common law. But what is common law, or statute law worth, in the face of despotic power and a settled purpose?—Have we not seen the Constitution, with all its guarantees for personal rights and privileges, go down before an irresponsible party, like a bulrush before a storm-tide? And have we not heard a very grave Judge declare upon the hustings that the Court of last resort would sustain the party by its decisions? Am I has not this very grave Judge done so, in his mere dictum from the Bench, on the question of the Homestead law? Go to! There is no fixed and settled law in the land! The behests of an irresponsible party in power, and the will of the Court are the law of the land.

History teaches us that a judiciary wholly dependent upon government or an irresponsible party for its existence or support, will always be subservient to those in power, in some way or other. If no other opportunity for showing this occurs, we may expect to find a manifestation of the spirit, in some high-handed measure of the Court, gotten up with a view of punishing political adversaries for pretended offences. Is there nothing of this spirit in the Court against the lawyers? It has an awful squinting that way to outsiders, and we have not met with a single person untrammelled by party affiliations, who does not dread it. Now constructive libels, for political offences, is precisely the line of operations which promises the greatest results and the easiest success in such matters, and in this case especially, because the members of the Court are the prosecutors, Judges and executioners. Take care, gentlemen, you are walking in a powder magazine with lighted fuses! The engine may be hoisted by his own petard!

Why, the proceeding in this case out Herods Herod, and our petit Coke truly rivals the great commentator. It possesses all of the character and spirit that pervaded the doctrines and practice of the iniquitous Star Chamber Court, to which Lord Coke paid the rather equivocal compliment of saying that it kept all England quiet; but it was a terrible repose—the repose rather of death than of life. This great commentator on the laws of England, and equally great tyrant, subservient enough to his masters, but haughty towards his equals, and domineering over those beneath him, not in moral or mental worth, but in the share they enjoyed of the favors of the government, was the first, it is said, who systematized and digested the general law of libel in the Star Chamber propositions, propounded and laid down as law in the celebrated case, de libellis famosis, and reported by himself. It will thus be seen, that he performed in his own person, the several functions of justice of the law, the expounder of the law he had made, the prosecutor of actions commenced under the law he had made, and finally, the reporter and trumpeter to all future times of his own usurpation and iniquity. Such men may justly be regarded as the pillars of the throne, and our government, already recklessly neglectful of the constitutional rights and privileges of individuals, is not likely to lose anything of its rigor or strength in the hands of their followers.

What views Lord Coke entertained of the liberty of the press, if he entertained any at all, or supposed any such thing existed, it is difficult to determine. He probably looked upon the press as simply the liberty of the Crown to use it for its own aggrandizement purposes, whether just or otherwise, and as the liberty of the people to use it for no purpose whatever, except to eulogize the measures of the government in all its departments, including the tyrannical acts of the judiciary. How far our Coke thinks with him in these respects, can only be inferred from his action in the case under consideration. Judging from that, and his answered purpose to push the lawyers to the wall and to silence the press, he has no idea that the latter half of the nineteenth century shall be at all behind, here in North Carolina, the close of the seventeenth in England, in these respects. The people sometimes decide justly; and it is always true, that their power is hateful, and their life miserable, who wish to be feared for their power rather than respected and admired for their talents and virtue.

A LETTER FROM JOHN DOE.

TARBORO, N. C., June 10, 1869.

To my fren Josia Turner, Jr.:

SUR:—I makes it a particlar pint, no matter what happens, to keep on the good side of nuspaper edditurs, and hence I call you my frend Josia.

The feelins of myself, and my frend Richard Roe have never before been so obserpulously crucefid, broken down, yea literally murdured, at a bit of scandal which has jest cum to our years, and I hurry to send this writin to you to git the facs. You know that I and my frend Richard have from time immemorial been Konnected with all the proceedences in all tribunals of the so called Courts of Justice in the land, and by Konsequence what harms Judiciary and the Courts hurts us. The caractura of the Courts, and all concerned, are as dear to us as our eyes apple, and we are jelus of their carectura as our own. Hence, if any body wants to fight the Courts we are reddy to put in.

It has jest been told us, that a certain paper, which you printed some time ago, called a protest from many of our big lawyers, agin the practice of Judges of the Supreme Court turnin politicioneers, writen political letters, makin political speeches or writen political addresses to the people, has been taken, seized and possessed by our sed Judges of the Supreme Court as ment for them and intended by the big lawyers as caps to fit their heds. And, furthermore, we are told that our aforesaid frends, the Judges, have taken the thing in high dudgeon and cut up shindy about it, and passed a rule that sich a paper was writen in contempt of the aforesaid Court, and designed to disgrace them and their influence, and, furthermore, that our frends the Judges and the Chief Justice at the hed, have resolved to silence the aforesaid lawyers and drive them from the Court.

Now such a piece of slang whangery as this, is too much for our credoulity. We can't exactly believe it. Its too grate a littin down of the Judiciary for us to believe any such stuff and therefore we write to you to git at the truoth. We saw that paper, and thot it a very good thing. It pretty near come up to our standard of caracter for our associates and frienss on the bench, and we supposed that every body Judges and all would say, Amen, to it. We thot it right to set the standard for our Judges pretty high, and we repel the slander that any Judge in our good old State will plead guilty to the charge of being a politioner or a partizan Judge.—And yet the news comes to us aforementioned, that our Judges do take it to themselves! O Shuckin! Its enuff to make Balaam's ass speak, if it don't wake up the slumbering ashes of our dead judges.

We can't believe this story, for the following reasons. Our Judges could not have ruled this way. Its got no warrant in the books. Its beyant all the legal larnin of Blackstone, or Coke, or Story, or Marshall, or sich like. Who ever heard before that a grave, dignified Bench of Judges should take up a noospaper article and make it a subject of serious ruling? No it can't be so. If Judge Pearson and Judge Reade had not been thar, sich young uns as Rodman, Dick and Settle, must have done sich a thing; but I tell you old Richmond never could have been so fuddled as to do sich a weak, nonsensible thing as that. No, no, it might have been the work of sich a Justice as John Barleycorn, but sich Judges as Pearson and Reade never could. Jest look at it!

That protest I understand was writen durin the campain last yeer. I spose you published it as a piece of noos, as a part of the history of the campain. It never raised my dander a bit when I red it. As members of the Court, Richard and I said, all right boys, it don't hurt us, it don't hurt the Chief Justice nor any of our Associates.—Let it pass as the idle winds or, if Joe Turner like, let him send it down to the archives of gravity.

But the story cums to us very different.—We hear the Judges all take it serious—all puts it in their pipes and smokes it and that it operates like the contents of Aunt Judy's glister pipe. O for shame. It ain't so.

Richard and I are kept away from the Court by unavoidable causes, but if you say the story we have hurd is true, we shall have to rally to the defence of our comrades.

Let me put the case agin. I say this story is not true. I hope our Associates, the Judges never could have come down from their dignity, first, to admit, that they were guilty of the charges alledged in the protest, which they certainly do, if they have treated it so gravely. Secondly, to belittle the high office by showing such malice, and resentment. Thirdly, to assume that the Court was treated with contempt by that paper. It would take fifty-five Philadelphia lawyers to show this.—Fourthly, by passing a rule so tyrannical and wicked as that, which would take the shine off of old Judge Jeffries of hated memry. Fifthly, such ruling musteriously depreciate the already too low character of our Judiciary, for pardon from personal or partizan bias. Sixthly, how bitter the malice must have been, that would prompt such retaliation. No, no, Richard and I can't believe such a story in this inlightened age. It is a slander upon our frends which I rep.l with indignation.

JOHN DOE.

The portrait painters of Paris now represent the ladies whose likenesses they have to paint in the attitudes and costume of certain mythological characters painted by the famous masters. It is strange but true, that "Leda" portraits are most in demand among the fashionable ladies of the French capital. As a compromise with modesty the ladies pose behind a screen, the artist making his sketch from the reflection in a mirror.

The supervisors will be gentlemen well known and noted for honesty and integrity, who will not be allowed to purchase tickets or own any stock in the Company. The numbers and prizes will be drawn from each wheel by two blind boys and a full report of all numbers drawing prizes will be published in some prominent newspaper immediately after the drawing.

As the question has been asked frequently who is Jos. G. Hester, President of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, he furnishes the following references:

I am personally acquainted with Capt. Jos. G. Hester and believe him to be a sober, industrious, enterprising correct man.

A. W. LAWRENCE, GENERAL AGENT
Brooklyn Life Ins. Company.
Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 20, 1869.

I am, also, personally acquainted with Capt. J. G. Hester, and fully concur with the statement made above by Mr. Lawrence J. A. JONES,
Bookseller and Stationer, Raleigh, N. C.

I am personally acquainted with Capt. Jos. G. Hester, and fully endorse the above testimonials.

JAMES H. ENNIS, Bookseller, &c.,
Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 22, 1869.

I have been acquainted with Capt. J. G. Hester for several years, and concur in the above statements.

Raleigh, Feb. 22, 1869

I cheerfully endorse the foregoing.

BEATON GALES,
Sec'y N. C. M. H. Ins. Co.
Raleigh, Feb. 23, 1869.

Although I have known Mr Hester, but for a short time, I take pleasure in saying that I have formed a high opinion of his intelligence, enterprise, and capacity for business, and that I have been otherwise favorably impressed by him.

DANIEL R. GOODLOE,
U. S. Marshal.

I entirely concur with Mr D. R. Goodloe, in the above statement.

N. J. RIDDICK,
Clerk U. S. Circuit Court.

INSANE ASYLUM OF NORTH CAROLINA,
Raleigh, Feb. 24, 1869

I have known Capt. J. G. Hester, from his infancy. He is a gentleman of integrity, business qualifications and high personal character.

EUGENE GRISSOM,
Physician & Superintendent.

I entirely concur with Dr. Grisson in the above.

W. W. HOLDEN.

I have known Capt. Hester for two years and concur in the above.

R. W. BEST,
Late Sec'y of State.

We, the undersigned, having been appointed supervisors of the above Company, do certify that we neither own any stock or tickets, nor can we, and we will here state that the drawing will be conducted fairly for all who hold tickets, whether present or not at the drawing. We will publish a full list of all numbers drawing prizes, which will be sent to any one desiring it.

Supervisors.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the way of Real and Personal Estate—a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a cap. al of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter, are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars comes in possession of a homestead which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lotter.—It is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents that already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1869.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Celebrated Scotch Snuff.—Gail & Ax, Baltimore, Md.

"Hero" Fruit Cans and Hardware of Various Kinds.—J. Brown with Hart & Lewis.

Trial of Reaping Machines, under the auspices of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, on the plantation of M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., on Wednesday the 16th inst., at 11 o'clock.

WATSON DREW THE HORSE.—Just before going to press we learn that Watson, the Photograph man, drew the horse in the second explanatory drawing of the N. C. R. & P. Estate Agency, at Tucker Hall, this afternoon. Ticket, 770, drew the melodeon.

AWARDED.—We are informed that the Committee of the State Agricultural Society met to-day and awarded the contract for putting a fence round the Fair Grounds, to Rutus H. Page, Esq, a sure guarantee that the work will be well done.

A half mile track has been surveyed and the grading of it contracted to be done by Mr. Martin Allcott, who will at once commence operations. The Committee intend to put the grounds in thorough order.

SOMETHING GOOD.—Blair's a trump; he keeps a good hotel and keeps it well; so well that every body that goes there once goes there again. Not only does he make his guests comfortable by giving them the best fare and treatment, but he is the best judge in administering to the pleasures of his friends outside of the establishment that we ever saw. He can guess better what good thing one wants and when he wants it of any man in the city; as witness, the nice tray of cake, cream and jelly received by the Local, yesterday, just as the labors of the day were about finished, the paper gone to press, and the said Local in the best humor in the world for just such an episode in the history of his daily vexations and perplexities. Good luck and success to Blair, and superadive happiness to his excellent help mate, who, no doubt had some hand in fixing up that nice tray of nice things.

HARVESTING.—Our farmers are making preparation to commence harvesting their wheat crops. From all the information we have gathered on the subject, we conclude that not only in this vicinity, but through out the State, the wheat crop this year is above an average.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Yesterday afternoon and the greater part of this morning was taken up in the discussion of the case of Blake ex. Devereaux. Messrs. Haywood, Fowle and Phillips appearing for the plaintiff, Messrs. Moore and Bragg for the defendant.

The argument in the case was closed today about 1 o'clock. Opinion deferred.—No further business of any importance was transacted.

Mr. Kerr Craige, on taking the usual oath was admitted to practice in the Court

SUPREME COURT.—Court met. Present: Pearson, C. J., Reade, J. Judges Rodman, Settle and Dick, still attending the festivities at Chapel Hill. No business transacted.

BECOMING A CITY.—The Journal mentions, as an evidence that Wilmington is becoming a city, that they have a steam fire engine and street railway down there. We don't want Raleigh snowed under, so we mention, as its claim to citification, that we are paying a tremendous price for a new market house with a cellar under it, the dirt from which cellar we are spreading over Fayetteville Street, and that we have put a beautifully paved canal around the new residence of "Hon." James H. Harris, at the city's expense, and are doing a good many other things in the darn-the-expense-line, besides, we have two or three defunct fire companies, and a hook and ladder, and and a bucket company in a like flourishing condition. We have one colored fire company in effective condition, and they deserve commendation, and the favorable consideration of property holders, especially in a city that has no steam fire engine.

DEMOREST'S Illustrated Monthly for July is received. It is equal to its predecessors, and this, to its readers, is enough to say.—A lady who takes Demorest needs no other Magazine of the kind, and any lady can procure it for one year by sending $3 to Demorest 838, Broadway, New York.

INFORMATION WANTED.—The Wilmington Star's Localizer "almost wishes," for the sake of getting an item, that a big row would occur, "provided," says he, "we can be at a respectable distance." Desired to know, to what degree of intensity desire has reached when it amounts to "almost" a wish; and how many yards, furlongs or poles may be considered "a respectable distance" from "a big row."

INTERESTING EVENT.—The trial of Reapers to come off next Wednesday, as advertised to-day, cannot fail of awakening deep interest among our farmers and others, and of drawing to witness it a large concourse of spectators.

BLACKBERRIES.—The blackberry season is open, and hundreds of bushels will be brought into market every day, bought and turned into blackberry dumplings and pies, things, in themselves, with a little sauce, not bad to take. By and-by they will become so plentiful as to be a dead drug in the market, and those who bring them will find it difficult to find sale for them.—Should this occur, we advise the pickers to dry their berries carefully and nicely, and they will find ready sale for them in that shape, at remunerative prices.

A FULL and complete account of the Commencement at Wake Forest was received too late to day for publication. It will appear in our to morrow's issue.

We understand that Mr. Moore, the local Editor of the Sentinel, has apologized to C M. Farris, Esq., for the article entitled a "Fuss in the Family." The article was wholly untrue, and we so pronounced it at the time it appeared. Mr. M. received his information from an unreliable person, and now takes back the assertion. We hope those papers who were so eager to copy that article will also copy this, and thus do justice to the parties interested.

We clip the above from the Standard, of this morning, for the purpose of correcting some mis-statements in it. "Mr. Moore" has not "apologized" for the article alluded to, and has not said the article was untrue; he did not receive the information from "an unreliable person," but from a respectable gentleman. We gave Mr. Farris his name and Mr. F. has since said he had traced it back to one Benjamin, who, he said, was an "unreliable person," and who, it appears, is now off with the special militia to Jones County.

We told Mr. Farriss that, if we should be convinced the facts were not as stated, we would make the proper correction. He referred us to the accounts in the Auditor's Office, and we partly promised that we would look at them when we should have leisure to do so. We have not done so yet, and, consequently, have not had the evidence they may afford that there is any correction necessary.

We have a very high opinion of the utility of newspapers, but do not expect nor desire them to make our apologies on any subject without our leave and consent. We are willing enough, nay, anxious always, to apologize for any wrong we may perpetrate, but prefer to do it ourself and not by proxy.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock by the Rev. T. H. Pritchard, of this city. About sixty delegates were ascertained to be present. Rev. W. B. Harrell, of Smithfield, was chosen President. Rev. Messrs. C. J. Nelson, of Goldsboro', W. R. Gaultney, of Hillsboro', and E. Frost, of Davie county, were elected Vice Presidents. Messrs. B W. Jeffries and Jno. Nichols, of this city were selected Secretaries.

The morning was mainly consumed in organizing and in an address on the subject of "Country Sunday Schools," by the Rev. F. M. Jordan, of Orange.

To night the Rev. J. C. Hiden, of Wilmington, will deliver an address on the subject: "What to teach and how to teach."

The Rev. Geo. C. Connor, of Georgia, will also address the Convention, taking as his subject, "Object teaching in Sunday School."

The public are invited to attend.

The following is the programme for tomorrow:

9 A. M.—The relation of the Sunday School to the Church:——

2. The good Superintendent: Rev. G. W. Sanderlin, of Goldsboro'.

3. P. M.—The oral Method of Conducting Sunday Schools: By Rev. W. B. Harrell, of Smithfield.

2. The opening and closing Exercises of Sunday Schools: R. S. Pritchard, of Wake Forest College.

8 P. M.—Mass Meeting in behalf of the Sunday School Association of North Carolina. Addresses will be delivered by members of the Convention and several beautiful hymns will be sung by the children of the Raleigh Baptist Sunday School.

At the conclusion of each essay thirty minutes will be occupied in the subject presented. Several subjects not mentioned above will be discussed during the Convention.

THE official list of the drawing of prizes at Tucker Hall, to day, will be published in the Velocipede, a new paper to be started in this City, which will make its first appearance on Tuesday next. Any one desiring a specimen copy, can have it sent to them on application, or by addressing editor Velocipede, Raleigh, N. C.

FEASTING.—Somebody has given Britton of the Bully Courier, or Courier-Bulletin, a "slice of fat sturgeon," and he says it was mighty good. He had it par boiled and then roasted, and ate it "like beef." Now, sturgeon is right good eating, when properly cooked, but, what would Ned think if he were once blessed with an opportunity of ladling into his inner man, a bowl of Pepper's genuine turtle soup!

THANKS.—Our natural timidity and retiring modesty have been severely taxed by the many flattering and complimentary things that have been said of us, since our readyent into newspaper life, by our cotemporaries of the State press. We thank you, gentlemen, for your kind and friendly greetings; they make us feel so good that if we were not at present in the temperance line, we'd drink with every one of you the first time you asked us.

TURTLE SOUP.—Pepper has a "great, big" sea turtle on exhibition at his Restaurant, to-day, or had this morning; and which is to be slaughtered and made into soup, ready for delivery to families or individuals by 11 o'clock to-morrow. How our mouth waters at the thought!

REMARKABLE LONGEVITY.—There is an old negro woman living in this city named Abby Pickett, who has reached the advanced age of 112 years. She resides on Third street, between Nunn and Church streets. Her young-est son is now living and has reached his 70th year. The old woman moves about even yet quite easily. —Wil. Journal.

TRAVELLING THE RIGHT ROAD.—The good people of Tarboro, we learn from the Southerner, are getting up a Land and Building association, a large number of shares having already been subscribed, and a flattering prospect of the whole being raised in a short time. This is a good move, and if wisely managed is bound to be productive of good.

SALE OF A VALUABLE PLANTATION.—Yesterday Mr. Wilkes Morris, Commissioner, sold by public auction the plantation known as "Meares' Bluff Plantation," and formerly owned by Col. T. D. Meares. The whole property, inciding 625 acres of land, a small dwelling, and outhouses, sold for $7,000 cash.—Wil. Star.

About 5 or 6 prisoners, all U. S. soldiers, were brought, under guard, to town on yesterday. We learn that they are to be tried before the Court Martial now in session at this town.—Goldsborough Messenger.

GENERAL NEWS.

A genius in New Bedford is fitting up a steamer for the purpose of towing icebergs to India, where they sell for six cents a pound. Another proposes to do still better—to fit a screw to the iceberg itself, and thus avoid the expense of ship-building.—'Cute fellows both of 'em.

Dr. Parr and Lord Erskine are said to have been the vainest men of their times. At a dinner, Parr, in consoles with the conversational powers of Erskine, called out to him, though his junior, "My lord, I mean to write your epitaph." "Dr. Parr," replied the noble lawyer, "it is a temptation to commit suicide."

Not long ago, in one of our New England towns, a woman entered a probate office with four little "hopefuls," and with a countenance that would do justice to hard days, commenced her truly affecting appeal: "Please, your Honor, my husband died detested, and left four little infidel children, appointed me executioner, and I pray your lordship will allow me to execute the deed."

AN UNUSUAL LAW CASE.—The County Court of Mason will have its next session on the 2d Monday of this month. A very important case will be before the court, whether the will of John R. Key shall be admitted to probate. The will entails the estate of the deceased upon his daughters and the heirs of their bodies, disinheriting the other children. The two daughters have very generously petitioned the court to set aside the will and divide the property equally among the children of the deceased. —Maysville (K. Y.) Eagle, June 2d.

The largest room in the world is not the Boston Coliseum, but is to be found in Lucknow, India. The great Imambarra was built by one of the kings of Oude as a citadel, and one of the rooms was set apart for the most solemn ceremonies of the Mussulman worship. The architects were required, in presenting "proposals" for the building, to stipulate that it should be no copy of any other, and that it should surpass every other building in the world in beauty and magnificence.

Carleton, of the Boston Journal, in the course of some advice to people who design to make the tour of Egypt, speaks of the Arabs, who act as guides to, and in the Pyramids, as having been libelled. He says their demands for pay and gratuities are no worse than the New York hackmen, and can be more easily managed.

NOVEL DIVORCE.—Judge Brady, of New York, has rendered a judgement in an action against a man for bills incurred by the woman reputed to be his wife, in which the Judge held that the fact of her not being actually married did not release the ostensible husband from liability.

A young negro in Kentucky who had been whipped for stealing, took his revenge by killing his father and burning the body.

Several persons have been arrested in Hanover for posting placards throughout the city, calling upon the inhabitants not to show themselves in the streets during the visit of the King of Prussia.

Three convicts have hanged themselves in a week in the Ohio penitentiary.

A banker in Cincinnati last week found a sack of four thousand guineas which he stowed away behind an old safe during the panic caused by the John Morgan raid around that city, and had forgotten.

Yale College has received another bequest of $50,000 from a gentleman in New York.

Several young German women of rank and fortune have been exploring the hidden recesses of Africa, and one has published a book descriptive of her explorations. A great many New England school marms have been doing this kind of work, but we have not seen any books from them yet.

Last year two thrifty Germans purchased 80 acres of land in southern Tennessee.—This season they gathered strawberries enough from 4 acres to pay for the whole tract.

An Indian genius has let his little finger nail grow to an unusual length, and has had it made into a pen.

Posterity cannot fail to be gratified by the intelligence, which we record for its benefit, that Vinnie Ream had the original square toed boots of the late Mr. Lincoln to model his statue from.

Two prominent citizens of Indianapolis quarreled twenty years ago and has not exchanged a word since. The great revival in that city has brought about a reconciliation, and they are once again friends.

When Queen Isabella heard that the Spanish people desired liberty of conscience she had a solemn mass said in Paris, and wept copiously during the service at the wickedness of her old subjects.

A Prussian officer has recently been arrested in France for taking photographic sketches of various fortified points.

Thalbert is in Paris. He is now very rich, and only plays at private parties.

The Figaro denies that Thier's father was a blacksmith. It says he was an advocate of Marseilles, and that his wife was a cousin of the poet Andre Chenier, guillotined in '93.

Gutzkow, the German poet, has recovered from the insanity with which he has been afflicted for several years, and finds that he can really work harder, longer, and more successfully than before while mental powers were clouded.

It is estimated that 45,000 Americans visited Germany in 1868.

A singular mirage was seen on Tuesday noon on Lake Ontario. The shores of Canada were visible, buildings on the lake shore loomed up, and vessels appeared bottom uppermost.

The boy who, when asked to what trade he would wish to be brought up, replied, "I will be a trustee, because ever since papa has been a trustee we have had pudding for dinner," was a wise child in his generation.

TELEGRAPHIC.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Mr. Well of Atlanta, was hurt in the late accident. He was en route for Europe as State Emigrant Agent. A gentleman from Charleston, S. C., en route to Maine, was seriously injured in the breast by a splinter.

A committee of Cotton Brokers write Avelanne contending that, as more agents in bringing buyers and sellers together they are parties to only one transaction, and should not pay two taxes.—They state that they have such an office in New York city where they display samples of cotton received by commission merchants, and procure buyers for said cotton.

They have no interest whatever in said cotton, other than that of procuring a buyer and receive a brokerage from the sellers of 25 cents per bale.

Delano has given no decision.

It is rumored that Boric will resign, and that Gov. Geary succeeds.

The negro Stewart, whom the police carried to the polls where he voted, has been sent to Baltimore by the authorities for safety.

FROM GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, June 10.—Parties arrested in Warrenton by the military have been released by the Court on their giving bonds. Judge Andrews of the Circuit Court has forbidden the sheriff at whose instance the arrests were made to act or in any way assume the functions of office. Quiet restored. Good feeling exists between citizens and the military.

FROM MISSISSIPPI

JACKSON, June 10.—The body of Col. Crane left to-day for Dayton, Ohio. This morning the Board of Alderman of this city passed resolutions of condemnation and sympathy. They say, 'We but reflect the pervading sentiment of all classes in deprecating the crime.'

FRANCE

PARIS, June 10.—Gen. Fleury has been appointed Minister to Italy.

Duke De Persigny has written a communication to the Emperor Napoleon, advising the introduction of further liberal reforms.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Cotton more steady, closing quiet. Sales 2900 bales at 31¢. Flour unchanged. Wheat shade firmer. Corn firmer. Pork 31¢. Lard firmer. Kettle 19 to 19½. Groceries dull and steady. Turpentine 44 to 45. Rosin $2 25 to $8. Freights steady. Cincinnati Pork in good demand at 32; held ½ higher. Bacon held. Shoulders 14. Clear sides 18; offered ¼ less. Lard held at 19. FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 11, M.—Hoar's opinion of the status of Georgia is not expected to be promulgated under two weeks.

The Government loses but 23,000 dollars by the Santa Fe depository robbery.

It is reported that Farmer, the negro Post Master for Macon, Ga., has secured and filed his bond. It is also said that his appointment was determined upon by the Cabinet, and that the President, under the circumstances, declines to withdraw the Commission. Farmer is here.

FROM FLORIDA.

KEY WEST, June 11.—Yellow fever cases doing well.

FROM NEW YORK.

ALBANY, June 11.—In the Printers' Union Convention resolutions were offered, censuring the Associated Press monopoly, as preventing the establishment of newspapers throughout the country, which were finally referred to a committee.

Hallock, of Washington, offered a series of resolutions, to the effect that employers should not make religious or political views a test of employment, and denouncing the action of the Congressional printer for opposing the negro, Douglass—"a rat." Adjourned without a vote.

READ WHAT THE

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES

SAY OF THE

BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—Hon. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

POEMS,

BY

AT

N. C. BOOK STORE.

JAS H. ENNIS, AGENT.

June 7th, 2w.

ROBERT SOUTTER OF GRANVILLE COUNTY, realizing the importance of spreading the growth of Wheat in this County; and the farmers, knowing so well the absolute necessity of supplying themselves at an early period with "Seed Wheat" of the finest quality, ready to plant in the Fall, the undersigned takes this early method of inviting applications from farmers, for what they may require to plant next Fall, of the very "Select Seed Wheat" which he expects to deliver at moderate prices, from the crop growing now at his "Oakland Farm" near Townesville, in this County.

This Wheat was planted last Fall, with Guano, of seed selected in Baltimore with great care by my predecessor Mr. Chas. H. R. Taylor, who paid $2,25 for it there. It has had the advantage of a heavy top-dressing in Spring of Chicago Bone Fertilizer, and is now very promising.

Like the good Sorghum Seed which I have offered to the farmers of Granville I hope the orders for my "Seed Wheat" may be equally attractive, to absorb all that I can expect to spare of it.

Address me at Kittrell's Springs, or Mr. Thos W. Taylor, at Oakland Farm.

A HYMN OF PEACE.

Angel of Peace, thou hast wandered too long!
Spread thy white wings to the sunshine of love!
Come while our voices are blended in song—
Fly to our ark like the storm-beaten dove!
Fly to our ark on the wings of the dove—
Speed o'er the far-sounding billows of song,
Crowned with thine olive leaf garland of love—
Angel of Peace, thou hast waited too long!

Brothers we meet, on this altar of thine,
Mingling the gifts we have gathered for thee,
Sweet with the odors of myrtle and pine,
Breeze of the prairie and breath of the sea—
Meadow, and mountain, and forest, and lea!
Sweet is the fragrance of myrtle and pine,
Sweeter the incense we offer to thee,
Brothers once more round this altar of thine!

Angels of Bethlehem, answer the strain!
Hark! a new birth-song is filling the sky!
Loud as the storm wind that tumbles the main,
But the full breath of the organ reply—
Let the loud tempest of voices reply—
Roll its long surge like the earth-shaking main,
Swell the vast song till it mounts to the sky!
Angels of Bethlehem, echo the strain!

SHOES! SHOES!!

A large assortment, come along, bring your Greenbacks, Creech's is the place to buy your shoes.

Bonnets, Spring styles, some small enough and some large enough. For Ladies, Misses and Children trimmed and untrimmed Hats. A beautiful assortment, come lay away your old hat, and always come to Creech's before you buy a new one hat, &c.

Keep in before the people, that I told the people six months ago, that I intended to run through my campaign, with my motto to give each and every individual value received, for their valuable support giving the Ladies a fine opportunity to exercise there inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen, and since that time thousands have shown their good judgment by coming and demonstrating the truth of my assertion. I tell you Creech's is the place. And permit me to return my sincere thanks for your very liberal and valuable patronage for the last twenty-five years. I hope by strict attention to business, and honest dealing, giving each and every one the worth of their money, that I will continue to receive a liberal share of your patronage. The rest of my talking I shall do at my place of business which is Creech's corner Fayetteville street Raleigh.

TO RAILROAD CONTRACTORS.

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD, OFFICE OF CHIEF ENGINEER, Asheville May 6th 1869.

PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED AT THIS office until the 10th of June next, for the Graduation, Masonry, Bridge superstructure and Ballasting of one hundred miles of this Road, including (45) miles of the Branch Road down the Tyrone Broad river. This, the Western Division of the Road, extends from Asheville westward towards Chattanooga (135) one hundred and thirty-five miles, and a four ft west branch towards Cincinnati (45) forty-five miles. To contractors, this work presents attractive features consisting of tunnelling and other rock excavations, crossing several mountain ranges, besides a large amount of bridge masonry. All of which is accessible to the contractor, being for the most part near the turnpike roads leading from Asheville. Maps, plans, profiles and specifications will be ready at or the 20th of May for inspection.

All necessary information in regard to the work may be obtained at this office upon application.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers, and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so muddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and the liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

$1,000,000

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,562 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,005,530.00
Total Premiums,	350,117.03

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892

By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey,	693
" New England Mutual,	343
" Phœnix Mutual,	335
" Massachusetts Mutual,	312
" Equitable of New York,	277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.

In its 10th year,	1,250 "
And in its 20th year,	2,842 "

this latter being 690 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

PUBLISHED AT THE

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

FIRST CLASS NEWSPAPER.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their stuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the generic appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's paste is "far ahead" of all others being made of the best stock after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD, THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R.!

WE inaugurated and are the Great Through Loaded Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of shippers, North and south; for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand shippers in North and south Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any stove or range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the coarsest blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

Less time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the boiler, thoroughly cleansing and reducing the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHERS, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.
